Who do we help?

We assist those who are living at or below the Federal Poverty Line (FPL) on the West coast (Oregon, Washington, and Los Angeles). We start helping at age 15 (high school). We also help adults who are unemployed or under-employed.

What makes us different:

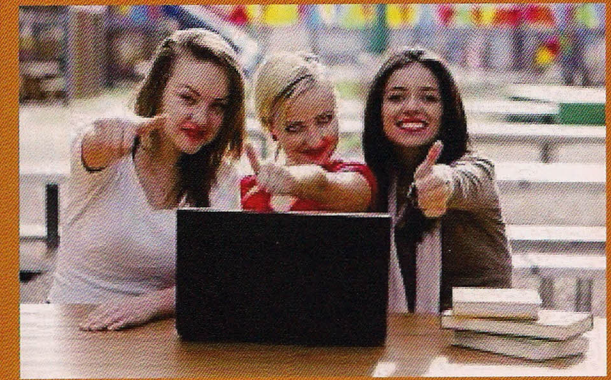

- Evidence based approach that has been tested and proven for over 25 years.
- Focused on helping people find and keep family wage, full time jobs.
- The only nonprofit organization implementing professional development training to ensure long lasting employment.
- No other organization follows you through your entire development journey; from high school to college, through your professional career and beyond.
- Hunger for Success was started by professional managers with over 50 years experience (combined) in career training and development.

Our Approach

Resume Building: We help you to customize your resume to bring out your unique talents. Using the Strengthsfinder test, a personal mission statement, and accomplishment statements, we will separate you from the rest and increase your chances of getting an interview.

College Navigation: We provide you with a step-by-step college entrance guide, scholarship lists, and a list of colleges to help you navigate choosing the right college for you.

Our Approach

Professional Development: Our training includes strength based management, listening skills, and generational strategies. We use books from Marcus Buckingham, Charles Green, and Haydn Shaw.

Job Placement: We help our participants find and keep full time, family wage jobs. We stay with you at least six months into your job for mentoring. We use a personalized development plan and conflict resolution techniques to help you succeed.
